BCA Receives $10,000 award from TD Charitable Foundation to support Artist Residencies

BOSTON, MA — Boston Center for the Arts (BCA) is delighted to be a recipient of a $10,000 grant awarded by TD Charitable Foundation, the philanthropic arm of TD Bank, to support BCA artist residencies. The grant is part of the TD Charitable Foundation's TD Ready Commitment portfolio and marks the first time BCA has received this award. The foundation's support of BCA allows the organization to help further direct resources to Boston-area artists.

BCA is where Boston artists create — through BCA's long- and short-term residency programs, BCA is able to provide artists in the visual, dance and movement, multidisciplinary, and theatre arts, a rare but essential need every artist has: the ability to think, explore, experiment, and push their creative practice forward. This grant from the TD Charitable Foundation is also especially welcome as it will help counter the ongoing crisis of affordable artists' studio space in the Boston area as they create new groundbreaking work.

"TD is committed to initiatives that expand inclusion efforts in the arts for all of our community members," said Sheryl McQuade, Regional President, Metro New England, TD Bank. "We are proud to be part of what Boston Center for the Arts is doing to help artists in our community access affordable studio spaces and remove barriers to create more cultural opportunities for all."
